WORKSHOP

Making it Normative:
Do Norms, Requirements, and Rules Give us Reasons?

[sponsored by the SNF Ambizione Grant
Epistemic Reasons and Rational Coherence: A New Answer to ‘Why be rational?’]

Institute of Philosophy
Department of Practical Philosophy
University of Berne

Saturday May 30th 2015

Room: F-121
Lerchenweg 26, 3000 Bern

PROGRAMME:

09:15 – 09:30 Welcome Address
09:30 – 10:30 Monika Betzler | Berne
The Normativity of Evaluative Commitments
10:30 – 10:45 Coffee Break
10:45 – 11:45 Christine Tiefensee | Frankfurt
Rationality, Reasons and Inferentialism
11:45 – 12:00 Coffee Break
12:00 – 13:00 Cristina Borgoni | Graz
Unendorsed Beliefs
13:00 – 14:30 Lunch Break
14:30 – 15:30 Attila Tanyi | Liverpool
The Structure of the Deonitic
15:30 – 15:45 Coffee Break
15:45 – 16:45 Julian Fink | Berne
Why Be Enkratic? A Rational and a Normative Perspective